

cruise

CAMPOBELLO ISLAND

Located in New Brunswick, but off the Coast of Maine on the Bay of Fundy, Campobello Island is the former summer home of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and home of an International Park that attracts thousands of visitors each summer.

This island will capture your heart with breathtaking views, hikes filled with unspoiled nature, fresh seafood, beautiful beaches, whale watching adventures, lighthouses, art galleries, shops and incredible history and culture.

PORT SPECIFICATIONS:

MAIN BERTH

- Length: 70 metres (200 ft)
- Entry Depth: 3.7 metres (12 ft) at low tide
- Slip: Not available

AVAILABLE SERVICES

- Transportation

THINGS TO DO

- Walk in the steps of the Roosevelts with a visit to the Roosevelt Campobello International Park
- Embark on a guided whale watching tour and visit the largest and most powerful marine whirlpool in North America
- Explore the lighthouses of Campobello Island, built as early as 1829
- Hike one of the many trails on the island – designed to offer short or moderate to long hikes through many beautiful locations
- Embody the island way of life, exploring local artisans, gift shops and restaurants

CONTACT

Susan Hill | Executive Director

Bay of Fundy Starts Here

Phone: (506) 321-1557

Email: info@bayoffundystartshere.com

Website: www.bayoffundystartshere.com

EMBRACE THE DIFFERENCES